

Hi, my name is Endora

Cuddly

Female Domestic Long Hair Cat

My name is Endora and I'm a 7 month old long-haired tabby with a precious personality to suit. Initially I am fiercely independent, but as soon as I feel comfortable with you, I will come up for pats, cuddles and to play. If I feel like you're ignoring me (or not patting me the right way) I will give a gentle lovebite to correct you. I get along well with other cats of all ages and can be adopted on my own or with my sister, Lilith. I would be best suited to a home without children as I love a quiet environment. I have been desexed, vaccinated, microchipped (991003000622553), flea and wormed and health checked. If I sound like the perfect kitty for you, please send a message.
