

Hi, my name is Tofu

Handsome & Kind

Male Domestic Medium Hair Cat

Tofu has taken some time to come out of his shell but has made so much progress. He is a handsome little guy with a shy but curious personality. He likes to spend his days sleeping at his favorite window spot. He is very affectionate with his siblings and likes to cuddle and hide in their fur when he has had enough attention. He would be best suited for a quiet home without young children. He has lived his whole life with other cats so probably would be best to have a companion cat friend for him.. or to be adopted out with one of his sisters (Gwendolyn or Miso) as they like to snuggle and protect him. Tofu enjoys food and has been interested in play but has to feel safe in his environment to do so. He doesn't like loud noises but I feel as he gets used to his new home he will get used to the way things are. I adore Tofu and he has been a pleasure to look after. Tofu is a very clean cat and is toilet trained. He will come Micro chipped, De-sexed and Vaccinated and will come with an up to date flea and worming. Tofu will make a very nice companion for someone!
