

Hi, my name is Storm

Petite and Pretty

Female Domestic Short Hair Cat

Hi, my name is Storm and my kittens and I were rescued after I had brought my kittens into a family's backyard to raise. I'm a pretty, petite, green-eyed gal who has raised a few litters, but no more kittens for me! It's finally my turn to be a kitten again, and I'm enjoying rediscovering playing! I really enjoy pats and am getting more and more comfortable with being picked up. I'd really love a home where I can be loved, played with and enjoy cuddles.

I don't mind other cats so long as I have space I can retreat to when I need it. I'm a little unsure about dogs, because the smell funny, but so long as they're not in my face I don't really care. Will you give me a chance to love you and finally get to be my own cat instead of a mumma? Please forgive the lack of photos. My foster mum says that being all black makes it really hard to get a nice photo that shows how beautiful I really am.

Storm has had a few teeth removed that were damaged on her arrival into care. These do no...
