

Hi, my name is Janey

A social girl!

Medium Female Kelpie x Mixed Breed Mix Dog

Beautiful Janey, with the loveliest personality and the biggest ears you will see! This little princess came into SAFE's care after being rescued from a community where she contracted parvovirus and fell extremely ill, SAFE brought her back to health and she is now ready for a family to call her own. Janey is fantastic with other animals currently in care with teeny pups to large breed dogs and also cats, she is very gentle and loves to play. She is very social and having a furry companion really helps open her up even more so she would suit a family with a furry pal to spend her days. She LOVES other animals and is a confident and happy girl when around them. On first meeting new humans, Janey is unsure and will bark and show she is scared not coming too close. It takes a few minutes and patience for Janey to realise that seeing a new human is no threat and all they offer is love, pats, and treats! Due to her past experiences and no fault of her own, she is needing the right home willing to work with her fear and help her open up and socialise with people a bit more. Being s...
