

Hi, my name is Marshall

A friendly deaf pup

Medium Male American Staffordshire Bull Terrier Mix Dog

This handsome boy is Marshall. Marshall was born pretty much totally deaf (he can hear very loud or high pitch sounds), but that doesn't stop him from being an active, inquisitive, friendly pup. Marshall and his carer have had some sessions with a dog trainer and Marshall is starting to learn hand signals so that he understands what his humans want from him - his successful applicant can talk with Marshall's carer to get some tips and techniques on communicating with him via these hand signals. This gorgeous pup can be a little timid initially in new situations but is very friendly and enjoys getting a pat or scratch from people. He knows 'sit'. Marshall is full of beans and will need a home who can provide him with a good daily run. His lead walking needs a bit of work as he loves to stop and check everything out! He is great with all dogs and our preference would be for him to find a home with another dog to keep him company, to provide reassurance and to help him navigate his new world; although he could also do well in a home without another dog if his family members are ar...
