

Hi, my name is Cora

Affectionate & playful

Female Domestic Short Hair Cat

Cora came into care as a very new Mumma....she was taken to a veterinary clinic heavily pregnant and within 24 hours, had given birth to her 4 beautiful babies. Cora is a very attentive mum, who loves to chirp to her kittens and even at 6 weeks, is always quick to attend to their every need and want. It was quickly evident that Cora was not used to the luxury of an indoor home. She took to the creature comforts of a warm and safe home, and was litter training quickly. Cora was covered in so many fleas and flea eggs that we could barely see skin. After a bubble bath, flea treatments and a much loved flea comb, Cora was finally rid of all the itchy parasites. With a change of diet, cuddles and lots of love, Cora is no longer malnourished and has a glossy and thick coat. She is a picture of health and happiness. Cora is good with other cats and great with people. Now that her kittens have started weaning, her inner kitten is starting to show. She loves feathers and ping pong balls, basically anything that she can play with. To keep Cora safe (and the wildlife), she's l...
