

Hi, my name is Royce

Looking for love

Male Domestic Short Hair Mix Cat

This is Royce. He is about 1 and a half years old and always looks stylish in his furry tuxedo. He came to Cat Haven as a stray and was very scared at the shelter so was sent to a foster home in Currumbine to help him get used to living with humans. Royce is a cute and cheeky gentleman who is shy around strangers and new people, but is quite a smoochy boy with the human he lives with. He currently spends the days on his own and comes out to say hello and demands pats when his human get home from work. Royce loves watching the world go by outside the window, and appreciates having the curtain left a little open at night so he can watch 24/7. He gets plenty of exercise indoors playing with his fake mice and ping pong balls - which he makes zoom all around the house. With the weather warming up, Royce has proven to be an excellent insect catcher, and will catch (and eat!) any fly or moth that dares come inside the house. Royce enjoys evening smooches with his human, and behaves like a wiggly worm when getting pats on a lap, until he settles down for a nap. He often follows the...
