

Hi, my name is Chelsea

Affectionate.

Large Female Greyhound Dog

Well I bet you read my age and did a double take! Yep, that's right I'm a mature lady with the face of a teenager. I am a very people orientated, affectionate girl and love shadowing my humans around. I have also gotten along well with the other breeds of dog here at GAP and think I could live with another social doggy friend. I do love having some kind of company around me so would prefer either my humans around most of the time or another dog for company. I enjoy playing with my rope or ball toys and carrying them around in my mouth. Squeaker toys are still a little too exciting at this stage so I'd prefer to stick to the simpler toys for now. With my easy going, sweet nature I think I could easily live with children above 10years.
