

Hi, my name is Bosco (K01551) Bed Loving Bosco

Male Siamese Cat

Hi my name is Bosco! Here's a little more about me. My favourite food: Ivory Coat dry food and Fancy Feast wet food My favourite toy: I prefer my cosy bed Personality: I am an older gentleman who enjoys the simple things in life, I love nothing more than curling up in my cosy cubby house, or on your bed and lazing the day away. I enjoy receiving pats, chin scratches and having a chat! Accolades: I am an expert at relaxing Best feature: My sweet and gentle nature My forever home: I am a senior fur man who is looking for a very quiet and settled household with no little people running around, I am looking for a home where I have my own special spot for my much loved me time. I am looking for older cat parents who are happy to give me lots of love and pats, but also understand that I enjoy my alone time.

Being an older gentleman, I seemed to have lost some of my teeth! I had most of my teeth removed around 6 months ago.
