

Hi, my name is Rocky 33359 Campbelltown Acf

Happy, energetic boy!

Large Male American Staffordshire Terrier x Cattle Dog Mix Dog

Hello! My name is Rocky. I am a total charmer, and am sure my handsome photograph is what inspired you to read onto my profile, so let me tell you a bit about myself... Despite my size, I am still a puppy at heart and have lots of learning to do! I am a bundle of enthusiasm, which means every outing with me is an adventure. It seems that I did not receive much training or socialisation in my previous home... Unfortunately this means I am unsure about how to appropriately interact with other doggies. Due to this I would do best as an only dog until I have complete further socialisation in my new home. I am currently bouncy and excitable on lead, and will require further training and guidance from my owner to help better my lead manners. My goofy, enthusiastic nature would be best suited to a family with adults only or older children. I would suit an owner who is passionate about training, and is looking for an intelligent, energetic dog to lead in the right direction. With some dedication and patience's I am sure to develop into a wonderful, loyal companion. Are you ready ...
