Big, bold and beautiful!

Large Female Bullmastiff x American Staffordshire Terrier Mix Dog

Hi! My name is Nala. I came into the facility as a stray and sadly no one came to collect me. I am a smoochy, gorgeous girl with a big personality. I can be very sporty and love going for walks. While I can be strong on lead, I do settle well and with some guidance my carers are sure that I will better my lead manners. I am food motivated and am happy to work for my treats, however, I can find certain environments a bit distracting and need to learn to focus more on my handler during training sessions. I am hoping to continue my training in my new home as it helps me better my manners and keeps me mentally stimulated! There is just one more important thing you should know about me... I am happy as an only dog. You see, I have not been fond of other dogs while at the facility and much prefer human company over my own kind. No other dogs at home? Great! Are you looking for a outgoing and friendly companion to keep you active? Yes? Sounds like I might be the dog for you! Come check me out.
