Male Domestic Medium Hair Mix Cat

Hello and thanks for visiting our profile. We are two handsome brothers that are 6 years young! We have been surrendered as our owner has sadly passed away. We need a really quiet, indoor only home with someone who understands our needs. Because we've been around a little longer, we have perfected our manners and are litter trained, do excellently at the vet, and use the scratching post regularly (as opposed to our foster mother's couch).

We like to engage in normal cat activities like hide and seek (make sure check under the couch before you send a search party) and trying to catch cat toys on a stick. We currently have one fur roommate, a chihuahua named Nigel, that we are currently getting used to. We haven't had any major confrontations yet, but we like to have our own space and that guy is a little intense sometimes. Spyro is the social butterfly and likes lots of pats and cuddles. He is a bit braver than Spoke, curious and keen to investigate his surroundings once he is settled. He is also super clever and has figured out how to cheat at cat games and catch the mou...
