Located Morwell Zeus is a beautiful black and white boy who is very well settled. He likes to run around and interact but also knows when to calm down and come get a cuddle. Zeus loves to play fight with his brothers and will always find something to play with and keep himself entertained. Zeus would be suited to a household with other pets to play with, but would also do well on his own provided he is given enough attention. Zeus is desexed, microchipped, vaccinations up to date, flea and worm treated. He is also fully littered.
