

Hi, my name is Mitzi

what a sweetheart!

Small Female Fox Terrier x Pug Mix Dog

Mitzi is our senior girl who might not have classic good looks but is an absolute sweetheart!

This girl loves her sleep and is last up in the morning. But once awake she is full of excitement waiting to go on her morning walk. She loves to just be with her people and snuggle next to you or on her bed where she can see you - whether you are on the couch or in bed. She loves to loll around on the grass, sit for treats and has a hearty appetite. Mitzi is fully house trained and travels very well in the car. She has picked and responded well to her new routine - racing off to bed once she goes out for her last 'wee' for the day. Mitzi would suit someone who is home most of the time and looking for some company or a buddy to go walking.

When Mitzy came into care she had two teeth removed. Due to her age, she is likely to need dental care in the future and her teeth health should be monitored. She also is a bit of a noisy breather (and snorer!) due to a small growth on her...
