

Hi, my name is Poppy

Looking for love

Male Domestic Short Hair Mix Cat

Poppy and his brother Pepper were surrendered to the RSPCA Animal Care Centre as their owner was going into aged care and could not take them along. They have been living together with their owner since they were kittens. Poppy lost his left front leg to a rabbit trap, which are banned in Tasmania. He had it amputated and has not had any problems with it since. He is used to living with a small dog in a quiet household and is still quite an active cat. We would love for Poppy and Pepper to be adopted together, but as they are still young, they will be okay with being rehomed separately.
