

Hi, my name is Opal

World's Happiest Girl!

Large Female Greyhound Dog

Opal is a dear, precious soul with a heart so big, it's amazing it fits in such a small little body! She's a sweet little bean who loves a cuddle and also loves the company of other dogs. She will need to be in a home with another dog, preferably a bit more mature as she's only a puppy and learning to moderate play and how to keep her enthusiasm for life under control. She will need patience and someone who is willing to work with her, she has come such a long way, but she still needs some work to build her confidence (and sometimes overconfidence!) walking on lead. Opal loves a squeaky toy and is close to learning that toys are what we chew but occasionally she will get bored and lets her active mind get the better of her! Opal is an enthusiastic environmentalist, she gets excited and happy at the sight of grass and trees and loves chasing leaves as they swirl around in the wind. This is a sight to behold and brings a smile and often an enormous belly laugh to all who witness it! Opal will also often pick up the odd can, bottle or empty chip packet on the daily walk a...
