

Hi, my name is Frankie very loving

Large Female Rottweiler Dog

Frankie has come back up for adoption as she needs to go to a home with no other pets. She is very eager to please & loves laying on the lounge for a hug. She loves being inside but is happy to be shut outside when required. Frankie has had a hard life as her & her litter sister's, original owner got them when she was 92 and they had little to no interaction or training. They were fostered by someone who already had 2 rotties, when their owner became ill, and when she died there was no one else to take them. As they took so well to being inside dogs and loved attention the foster carer was happy to keep them. She has had them for over 2 years now & they have been really good girls, but unfortunately Frankie started fighting with the female dog in the house and became very territorial. She was fostered by a new family in April, and to start with got on great with the new families dog & children, but has now started being territorial again, and the can't keep her. Frankie has been diagnosed with severe arthritis in her back legs, which was caused from having 2 ACL's when she was...
