

Hi, my name is Shadow

Affectionate and Friendly

Female Domestic Medium Hair Cat

Meet Shadow, Shadow is an incredibly affectionate young lady. She loves to be around her humans and spends all day chatting and asking for pats. Not to mention, her purring is almost constant! Shadow is excellent company and very well mannered, she is incredibly welcoming and loves anyone that gives her love. This little girl also loves her food and eats anything given to her. Shadow has been living in a household with her latest litter of kittens plus two other cats and a small dog. She's not overly bothered with the other animals in the house and loves her humans the most; she even gets a little jealous if someone else is getting the attention! Shadow would love a family that will give her as much love as she puts out because she truly deserves it. She has grown up with children as well so kids should be no problem for her and she would love someone to play with. She is truly a stunner and would be an amazing addition to any family.
