

Hi, my name is Ted

Looking for love

Large Male Greyhound Dog

Our Ted is looking for a sidekick to join him on all his adventures. A tall, golden fawn greyhound with exceptional eyeliner, the softest earsies and a tail that's always in motion. Ted charms everyone he meets with his movie-star looks. Affectionate with a penchant for couch cuddles, Ted just loves to be wherever you are. He has a serious case of FOMO (fear of missing out) and will follow you around like a shadow. He would prefer that you work part-time or from home. A model house guest, Ted has adapted well to pet life. He's a clever cookie who doesn't need to be told twice to 'go to bed'. Ted also knows to wait before crossing the road. A quick learner, Ted will have no trouble continuing his touch training and learning new commands. Ted greets each new day with enthusiasm, and is always adventure ready. Being a younger greyhound, Ted has more energy than your average couch potato. You won't have to drag him around the block, but he'll require a good snooze afterwards. Two longer walks a day would be perfect. Whilst Ted can be a solo snoot, he would do well...
