

Hi, my name is Socks

Looking for love

Male Muscovy Duck

Socks the duck - From the size of him, you'd never guess he was the runt of the ducklings. In fact, he was born a day or two after the rest of his siblings and was unable to walk. His carer found him nearly lifeless shortly after birth, popped him inside a baby sock (hence his name) and tucked him away under her shirt. A few days of special TLC and watching Netflix, and Socks was ready to join his Mum and siblings to learn how to be a duck and not a human. Socks quickly made up for his early days and is now the biggest one of all with a gorgeous fluffy tail.
