

Hi, my name is Zak

Gentle soul

Large Male Rottweiler Mix Dog

Zak is now looking for his forever home, this gentle boy had a bit of a bumpy start to life but is now only looking excitable to his bright future with his new forever family, Zak is very laid back and has a very soft nature about him, we have started working on his leash and general training but this young lad will need continued work on his obedience and needs help with meeting all his social and training needs as he matures His still young so with the right boundaries and training he will fit into any household
