

Hi, my name is Willie

Looking for love

Large Male Bull Arab x Great Dane Mix Dog

Willie is a big goofy boy looking for an owner who has experience with young, large breed dogs. He requires an owner committed to continuing his training and setting clear boundaries from day one. His home will need to offer him structure and routine and his owner should implement 4 paws training ie Willie keeping his four paws on the floor at all times, sit=please and 'Nothing In Life Is Free'. Willie is still a young boy who is very food motivated and eager to please which will be great when in training mode. Attending force free training classes is highly recommended. Willie must be allowed indoors and included in the family. Mat and/or crate training will be very beneficial as this will give him his own area to go to for quiet, calm time. He can be quite silly and jumpy at times so reward all calm behaviours and redirect unwanted ones. He can be a little protective of his food and high value treats so needs to be fed all food and treats on his own, away from people and other animals. Only interact with him once he has finished. Willie is a lovable and very social boy needing...
