<https://www.victoriandogrescue.org.au/about-vicdrg/adoption-and-foster-application-forms.html> Boo is an absolute sweetheart. She has had a tough life and is learning that there is a better way. She is so charming and wins the hearts of everyone that meets her. Boo adores everyone she meets. Boo is an enthusiastic snuggler and she just loves to be the centre of attention. If you like to go for a drive in the car she will be there paws and all. She likes looking out the window and watching the world whiz by. Boo will rest on you if she can get away with it and will sneak onto the couch or your bed as she has an appreciation for comfort. This beautiful girl is super chill at home as long as she knows where you are. Boo is okay with other dogs, but will vie for attention if she isn't the only dog! She loves her walks. When she meets other dogs on a walk she stops for a look but is happy to keep walking. Boo is learning to walk on a lead. She is curious but not difficult at all. You do need to keep an eye ...
