

Hi, my name is Tina

Looking for love

Female Domestic Short Hair Mix Cat

I was found as a stray in Caljie! I'm a bit shy at first but if you have a little patience I know I can be a great pet! My name is Tina but my foster family calls me Tineey-Weenie. I used to be a stray kitty for a long time before coming to the cat haven and then into my foster family. They have shown me so much love and affection that helped me to trust them and now I am addicted to pats and attention. I have a very quiet personality and I enjoy pats from everyone who meets me as well as sleeping under a throne of pillows and fleece. My first night was very scary. I spent the whole night hidden away in different locations so that nobody could find me. I slowly let this big scary hand down into my hiding holes because it gave me pats and served me food. After a couple days of apprehension I came to realise how good belly pats and cuddles are! Now I warm up to new people very easily and don't seem to be afraid of other house cats. I love headbutting my foster family with love and enjoy a soft brush even though my fur is quite short. I like it when my foster family gives me p...
