

Hi, my name is Raylyn

shy playful

Female British Blue Mix Cat

Raynor and Raylyn came in with their semi-feral mother Raven. They had been found at the bottom of someone's garden. They had been feeding her through the pregnancy and since having the babies. The landlord had found out so asked them to get rid of them as they were not allowed pets. They were brought to happy paws, Raven is in foster care and we are hoping she will get used to being with humans. Her two babies are getting use to us now, they don't mind being touched and stroked, they are fine with cuddles too! They are in the kitten room now learning to play with the other kittens. They have been desexed, immunised and microchipped.
