

Hi, my name is Sugar

My chubby cheeks

Female Domestic Short Hair Cat

Sugar is sweet girl who was rescued from an industrial area with her sister when they were only a couple of weeks old. Due to this Sugar is cautious when getting to know new people and can take a couple of days to feel comfortable and warm up, but she is the sweetest angel once she feels comfortable. Her energy is very calm and gentle in nature. As Sugar is still young, she is still learning how to play. She is very gentle and has started to get more energetic as she gets older. You may mistake her for a little meerkat when she is up on her back legs swatting at some hanging string. Sugar needs a home that is understanding of her nature, and is willing to put in time with her and her sister to make them more comfortable so they can flourish into the amazing cats they are. The two girls, Sugar and Spice, are very close to each other as they have only had one another for comfort and protection. They spend most of the day cuddled up together as close as they can get. It would be lovely to see them go together and would really help them settle into their new home. The a...
