Male Domestic Short Hair Cat

Hi I'm Indiana but you can call me Indie Indie is a beautifully natured boy who recently had to be surrendered due to the rental crisis. He was obviously well cared for and loved by his original family who've helped make him into the delight that he is. He is the gentlest cat his foster carers have met, along with being affectionate, loyal and sweet. Photos do no justice - he has a thick shiny coat, bright eyes and looks strong and healthy. Indie thrives in a home where people are around for most of the day as he likes to be a part of the family, following them around the house and lying next to them whenever he can for a cuddle. He likes children, happily seeking them out for smooches and is so gentle he'll even let toddlers pat and kiss him. He also loves other animals so long as they're friendly, from dogs and cats all the way to rabbits! If they love him, he'll love them back. Being a gentle soul, if other animals in the home are aggressive or overly dominant, he will likely hide himself away, so friendly housemates are a must. He also likes to sleep in the bed at night and wi...
