

Hi, my name is Adrian & Adora

Bonded Siblings

Male Domestic Short Hair Cat

Adora and Adrian are an adorable domestic shorthair sister and brother duo. They have grown up together, they look very much alike and are now looking for their new home together. Adora is incredibly pretty with her even white markings, and her sunny and friendly personality matches her sweet looks. That is great, because Adora is also a talented poser and happily finds the best places to take the perfect photos. The things she loves most in the world are a fluffy blanket and her brother Adrian. She loves to play and her favourite toys and anything she can chase, such as little fish, mice and bird toys. Adrian is as adorable as his sister, and a very cuddly and warm kitten. Adrian absolutely loves pats and with his very soft fur that is like a smooth blanket, he is the ideal cuddle buddy. He is very curious and brave and wants to know everything that is going on around him. Adrian loves playing and especially any toy that he can chase and catch by jumping up in the air! Adrian was born with a mild feline cerebeller hypoplasia (CH) which is a congenital condition present at bi...
