

Hi, my name is Bobby

Special needs

Medium Male Kelpie Mix Dog

Please read carefully. Bobby may never be able to walk in public, due to being so anxious. We are looking for a permanent home for Bobby. Someone who is willing to earn his trust and not put him in a situation that he will not cope with. Would prefer another dog that he can help him feel safe. Bobby came in totally shut down, no eye contact and shaking. Sadly for him his previous owner had no dog experience and had no idea how to help him. They tried a dog trainer, animal behaviourist and a vet suggested to put him on meds, which did nothing to help. This is why he is in our care He is no longer on the meds, however we have put him on a natural one, lherb Melatonin to help settle him. It's going to be a long road with this boy to travel. From the dog we got in to what he is now we have seen an amazing change in him. This is why now we feel he would do better with more one on one time, which he does not get here with us. This isn't a turnkey dog and we can not express enough that he may never be able to cope with the outside world. What ever happened to him as a litt...
