

Hi, my name is Toadie

Looking for love

Medium Male American Bulldog x Staffordshire Bull Terrier Mix Dog

Hi, I'm Toadie! I also go by Toad-man, The Toad or Big T. I've had a tough life so I need a VERY EXPERIENCED home to teach me the ins-and-outs of being a pet and how to manage my anxiety. Extra bonus points if you are experienced with Bulldog breeds, but as long as you have had large breed dogs before and have researched Bulldog traits, that's okay too! I haven't had much guidance or training in life so I tend to get overly excitable and boisterous around people, which can be difficult to manage due to my size. On the positive side, I am super food motivated and love to learn new things so I'll be a great project for someone with an interest in dog training and experience managing these behaviours. I haven't been walked much or met many dogs, but I do enjoy playing with the new canine friends I have made here. I need to go to a home with a friendly, well-trained FEMALE canine companion to help me learn how to behave appropriately. I need a large, secure yard to get my energy out in, and to help with our training! I am NOT suited to a home with children or visiting children....
