

Hi, my name is Nancy

Energetic, peoples dog

Large Female Rottweiler Dog

Nancy is an energetic fit individual who has been in my care for the past 12 months, unfortunately circumstances are such she will have to move to her third home. I have 2 older dogs and Nancy has decided that she must attack my oldest (and Largest) boy at any instance possible. She is an alpha female and has become more dominant with the increased time she has been with me. We have stopped her chasing cars and horses, we have not been able to stop her chasing the cat or attacking the oldest dog. She does however love my entire male Rottweiler who will put her in her place. I believe the ideal home for Nancy would be one without cats, other dogs, small children (because of her size and lack of exposure to little humans) and the property would require secure fencing. Nancy is a good guard dog, she has a decent bark but only uses it when necessary. She enjoys a good pat and a brush and loves to be with you on an individual basis. She is a loving dog who enjoys long walks and a ride out in the car. If circumstances were different she would not be going anywhere but I have to lo...
