

Hi, my name is Arlo

Looking for love

Large Male German Shepherd Mix Dog

Arlo has been with his owner since he was four weeks old and was the only pup in his litter. He has always been raised by humans and because he was born just as Covid hit he hasn't had the opportunity of socialisation and training. Arlo is a beautiful dog who is very loving and wants to be with his people all the time. He sleeps on the bed, loves a cuddle, and follows you everywhere you go. Arlo is not good with small dogs and would need to be slowly introduced to other dogs. He is not good at meeting dogs on lead. Arlo has not been tested around cats. Arlo loves kids but can be rough so a family with older kids if any would be better. Arlo requires a home that is dedicated to taken him to a trainer to work on some of his behavioural issues. Arlo can be anxious and would prefer a family who is home more often than not. He will also need a home with tall secure fencing as he can escape at times. Arlo is a playful boy who has a lot of love to give and just needs a special person to give him the best chance to succeed.
