

Hi, my name is Emma

Looking for love

Female Domestic Short Hair Mix Cat

Emma is a sweet older lady who only wants to let special people into their life, people who are kind and will be good to them. She came to the shelter very afraid of everything around her. Once she realized we only wanted to be her friend she started throwing love and affection at us! She may become a little scared again when moved to her new home, but be assured, she will very quickly show you why we love her so much! If you think I might be the perfect fit for your family, please fill out an adoption application today!
