

Hi, my name is Tylo

Looking for love

Female Rabbit Unspecified Rabbit

I am a lovely bun who is looking for my new forever home. I need to be an inside only bunny as I have only ever been inside. I am best living with someone who has had rabbits before as I can get a bit cranky and will take some time to settle in my new home. I am little bit shy but enjoy sitting on your lap, so would be best suited to a home with older rabbit savvy kids or adults. I would love to have a large space setup inside your home, and have free range time running about, and you can see my cute binkies. I am litter trained, so this will make things easy, if you commit to keeping my litter fresh and clean. I am best suited to a home without other pets, as I have never lived with other animals before. I would suit apartment living. Microchip - 956000013328318 Source code - Br100934
