

Hi, my name is Monty

Looking for love

Medium Male Staffordshire Bull Terrier Dog

I was surrendered to Lort Smith as my previous owners could no longer provide me with the care and attention that I required. Let me tell you a little about myself and what type of home would be best for me. My favourite past times are going for daily walks, sitting on park benches and watching the world go by, meeting new people, basking in the sunshine, lounging around with my favourite people and last but not in the very slightest least, eating!

I absolutely adore being with my human friends, so will need to go to a home where my family are home more often than not. A home that consists of at least 2-3 would be best. You see, I do get a little bit upset when I am lonely, so will need a family that will be patient and help me build up on my confidence, so I then see that being alone is not really as bad as it seems. I can go to a home with children, however it would be best if they are 13 years and over. It is best that I am the only animal in the home, as I am not really fond of other dogs, and truth be told I do like all of the attention to myself! Now for th...
