

Hi, my name is Millie

Looking for love

Female Domestic Short Hair Mix Cat

Meet lovely miss Millie! Millie came in to the shelter with two little babies (they're super cute too, by the way!), although she's really still a baby herself. It was clear that all three of them had been living a little rough. All skinny and covered in fleas. Millie also had a nasty mouth infection that cleared up after a vet visit and some medicine. Now that she's feeling all better, she's ready to find a home of her own, where she'll get all the love and attention she deserves. So that she never has to live rough again, Millie will need to be an inside only cat from now on. She's quite quick on her feet, so perhaps not suited to a home with really young children or older people. If you have a home that can love and adore this lovely little lady, apply now: www.rspcaqlld.org.au/adopt Adoption price @165, includes desexing, microchipping, health check, a start on vaccinations, and flea and worm treatments.
