

Hi, my name is Dayne D12734

Looking for love

Large Male American Bulldog Mix Dog

Dayne is a lovely boy, always wants to be near you and will lie on his back for belly rubs. Dayne is very curious, he will follow you around and watch what you do. He knows the cues "sit", "lie down" and "wait" with hand gestures. He will come to you when you squat down, and he will also sit and wait before eating. Dayne is potty trained and can use a doggy door with ease. He is well behaved inside the car and knows how to get in and out, as well as where to sit. Dayne can also jump quite high from a standing position, and with the right training, he could do well at various doggy activities such as agility. He is fine with vacuum cleaners, even the robot ones. He is very playful with other dogs and may do best paired with another large dog he can run around with. He will only get upset and start barking if the other dog is done playing and he wants to keep going. He hasn't met cats, but does like to boop noses with horses. When Dayne is by himself, he gets bored easily and will need lots of things to play with to keep him out of mischief. His favourite toys are empt...
