Adopt love!

Female Domestic Medium Hair Cat

Hi there everyone, Macloy here. Found starving and crying in pain with a severe limp to her hind leg, this little kitty has gone from being alone to being safe in a foster carers home and has never shown anything other than love and affection to all those who cross her path. Even though she was in unimaginable of pain from her injury she was so loving and playful. She has since had surgery on her leg and all through her recovery she has maintained her affectionate and loving personality. She wore her little Elizabethan collar every day for two weeks like a champion, affectionately named from her foster brothers (aged 9 and 11) as...“Cat in the Hat” Miss Mac is well on the road to recovery with nothing more to achieve than gaining strength in her leg again and getting on with finding a caring family to call her own. She is super affectionate, extremely playful, super smart and ever so loving. Never complaining! . Toilet trained, cat friendly and can be dog friendly if introduced slowly. Her foster mum says she will make a lovely addition to any home. Apply to adopt today. I CA...
