

Hi, my name is Simba

Adorable Pup **

So Intelligent

Medium Male Jack Russell Terrier x Staffy Mix Dog

Hello, I'm Simba (black muzzle and tail). I'm a real cute little happy pooch. I am prepped and ready to leave my brother, who is bossier than me, and my foster family to make my way into the big wide world with my furever family. My family is someone who has the time to spend with me as I would like to be included in family activities and ride in the car. Like most babies I love to run and play, am full of energy, love to be silly and chew on things. Spending time with me and giving me things to do and lots of chew toys plus helping me learn manners will give you a new best friend for life! I would be grateful if I could go to Puppy Pre School, to help teach me puppy manners and to socialise me, as this is important for me to be able to go out and make friends as I grow up as I will become a medium sized dog. I have been learning to sit and come and I will follow you around and sit on your feet as I love company. I am also learning to do my business outside now. I am extremely smart, loving, cuddly and deserve a really good home. My adoption fee includes me, a full heal...
