

Hi, my name is Leela

Looking for love

Female Domestic Short Hair Mix Cat

Hi there, my name is Holly! I'm such a beautiful girl, I came into the shelter as a stray and I have spent my time in foster care gaining confidence. I was so shy when I first came into care, I was quite scared I had a eye injury and I felt so shut down. I have gained a lot of confidence in foster care and I am looking for my forever home who will be able to support me gain more and more confidence! I have so much to offer, I am looking for a home that has had experience with timid cats before, once I am comfortable, I come out of my shell. I am still understanding how to play and how to actually be a cat! I am looking for an adult only home as I can get scared of loud noises from time to time and I require a very calm and chilled home to reside in! I adore hidey beds, and I love my igloo I currently have, sometimes the shelter staff will be looking for me and I am curled up sleeping in my igloo. I will poke my head out to say hello! I would also prefer an indoor only home due to my behaviour traits, also loud noises really scare me so I would feel much more comfor...
