

Hi, my name is Max And Odie

Loyal

Medium Male Labrador Mix Dog

Max and Odie, the gentle dogs Labrador Rotti mix For two dogs that had not had much human contact they have very quickly made themselves at home and their preference would be to have at least one paw on you at all times. To sum up their personalities as they are quite different, Odie is the older, wiser sibling and Max is the cheeky younger brother.

They sleep outside and are inside with access to the backyard most of the day. We have only had one accident inside so far with Odie. They take a minute to warm up to new people but they absolutely love their treats so that helps. They haven't been tested much with children although they tend to prefer kids to adults they walk past so best to meet all members of the new family. Initially Odie barked when no one was home and they were left outside but this continues to improve the more they settle in and are less hyper vigilant. They rarely bark when someone is home in fact they aren't even bothered by the postie or a resident cat that comes to torment them all day by walking back and forth past the front window. The...
