Male Domestic Short Hair Cat

Hi, my name is Joey. Unfortunately I had a bit of an accident before arriving at GAWS and have had to have one of my front legs amputated - but don't let that fool you. I'm still one of the most energetic & playful cats around (also one of the most sleepy ones as well). I take a little bit of time to warm up to people but once I do you've got you're new best friend for life!

I have a big phobia of loud noises & sudden movements - due to that I would prefer an indoor home without children. I also seem to prefer female humans over males but that could improve over time. I love to sit on the couch at night & watch TV or survey the room from the top of the cat tree. I begrudgingly made friends at my foster home with the other cats but I also love to be the centre of attention, so depending on the other feline personalities in the home, I might prefer being an only child. NEEDS: Quiet, indoor home. No children.
