

Hi, my name is Ellie

Looking for love

Medium Female American Staffordshire Bull Terrier Mix Dog

Hi, I'm Ellie. Are you looking for a cuddly new friend who'll be by your side through thick and thin? Me too. My name's Ellie and I'm a sweet young lady who just loves affection. Ok, I'm a total snuggle bug! I have so much love to give! My dream is to find a new home where I can be indoors and completely become part of the family. I love people, and want to hang out with you as much as possible. I'll always be so pleased to see you, and will greet you with my super wiggly bottom and waggly tail. I also love food, so enrichment feeding is great for me.

I can be a bit worried in new environments, so we might need to take it slowly when I first come home. It would be great to find a calm, quiet home with structure and routine, with a safe place of my own to chill out in when I'm feeling overwhelmed. My human playmates need to be older, and any doggie siblings calm and social - best I meet everyone before we set up home together. If you think I might be the perfect fit for your family, please fill out an adoption application today! <https://www.rspcaqlld.org.au/expression-of-i...>
