

Hi, my name is Mason

a foot warming service

Large Male Greyhound Dog

Mason is happy to chill with his humans. He loves that his foster carers are working from home. One of his favourite places to chill in under Mum's desk as she works. He's happy to provide a foot warming service if she gives him the occasional belly rub with her spare foot. Mason likes his regular two 30 minute walks. He often has a bit of energy left to have a play at home for a little while afterwards. Mason enjoys his zoomies and toys. He enjoys puzzle toys, snuffle mats and loves to rip up paper and cardboard. If you give him a toy in a wrapper, he'll have just as much fun ripping up the wrapper as playing with the toy. It's even better with an audience, he loves it if you watch and give encouragement. Mason is adapting to this pet life very well. He is eager to please and has learnt some basic rules and commands in the home. He is still a little opportunistic though so don't leave that roast chicken on the bench when you leave the room. Mason sleeps the night on his own bed in the living room. He is a bit of a gentle alarm clock as he wants to let you know he's up. A br...
