Large Female Tibetan Mastiff Mix Dog

This black beauty is Cinder a 12 week old Tibetan Mastiff X and is the sweetest little lady you'll ever meet. Cinder and her Sister Sheba have been constantly handled and cuddled since they were teeny tiny. They came into care at just 4 days old , bottle fed and kept nurtured. Now they are looking for their INDIVIDUAL forever homes with a big brother to help teach them. They love the company of their foster fursiblings. We will not consider anyone who has no dog owning experience, no large breed experience and no guardian breed experience. We expect all new adopters to do their research on this breed to fully understand their requirements and the 15+ year commitment they require. Cinder is indeed ADORABLE now... but this little angel has the potential to make an undesirable mess if not given the right enrichment and training. Unfortunately no units, small yards or first time dog owners will ...
