

Hi, my name is Rider

Big lap dog

Large Male Greyhound Dog

Rider's racing days are far behind him and he is now looking forward to a lifetime of crazy couch days, backyard zoomies and the chilled out lifestyle. Rider is a friendly, affectionate and goofy greyhound with so much love to give. He loves to lie spread out on the ground with his limbs flopping all over the place. He loves his walkies and is great on the lead. This goofy noodle is definitely suited to the home environment. He just wants to chill out with the company of his family and be pampered with love and affection. Rider would not suit a home with cats, or small pets but he is great with all people, and is friendly with other large-breed dogs. In saying that, he does need slow introductions with other dogs as he is still learning his manners here at the shelter and needs some additional socialisation training. If you have food or treats in your hand, you will be sure to have Riders undivided attention. He is easily occupied by treats and enrichment, so if you leave him home while you pop out for work, he will happily keep himself entertained with a nice food puzzle or alike...
