

Hi, my name is Gregory Grove & Penders Park flightless couple!

Male Bird

Loving couple Gregory Grove and Penders Park both have wing injuries and will need a home with a safe yard to walk around in during the day before they go back in their cage at night. Gregory Grove was found by us about a year ago with two broken shoulders that had fused in an immobile state - we'd never seen anything like it! He cannot move his wings, and gets stuck on his back should he fall over. As such you'll need a cat-safe yard or a nice run set up for him. Penders Park can fly short distances - about half a meter - such that she can get up on chairs. We're proud to give special birds a chance, and hope we can find a loving home for this couple.
