

Hi, my name is Roger

The Father of all kittens

Male Domestic Short Hair Cat

Roger is still looking for his forever home! ☐ Roger has come so far and, after overcoming some social and medical issues, it's finally time for him to find his forever family. Roger truly has so much love to give and is a big weird, goofball once he opens up. If you think you will be able to provide Roger with the care he needs, please apply to adopt him and he will return the favour by providing you with an overwhelming amount of love. While in care, Roger used to release a little urine during his sleep, but after some trial and error, this is able to be controlled by an oral medication given three times a day. ☐ The medicine is liquid and Roger doesn't mind taking it at all. The perfect person for Roger will be someone who: - Will be home to give him his medicine three times per day. ☐ - Understands that on the very rare occasion, accidents may happen, and it is not Roger's fault. ☐ - Will be patient with Roger, allowing him to come out of his shell slowly, and understands that he may always be shy. ☐ - Will love him unconditionally, just as he will in return!...
