

Hi, my name is Riley

Hound with a big heart

Large Male Greyhound Dog

Riley can be shy in new environments but doesn't take long to come around. He needs an owner who understands the Greyhound breed and their quirks! He is house trained and enjoys spending time lounging with the family at nights and being around you. He loves to cuddle up close and thinks he's small enough to be a lap dog! He would do well with a dog companion who is chilled and can teach how to "dog". He loves a walk but has been known to freeze on different occasions, at different points of his walk. He still needs lead training but he doesn't pull. Riley's preferred home will have no small animals and will allow him to be inside as he pleases Riley is an ex-racer and can have some issues with smaller doorways and some staircases but in general, he does well in the house. He does not cope well in apartments and needs a backyard to chill out in. Riley is great with kids, and will even try to join when they play. If you think Riley will be the perfect companion, please contact us.
