

Hi, my name is Princess Pixie

Enjoying her Golden Years

Female Ragdoll Cat

Princess Pixie is a somewhat aloof old girl, who has a very relaxed nature and is looking for somewhere to enjoy her Golden Years. She has always been an indoor cat and has very little interest in the outdoors. She is litterbox trained. She will happily lay sunning herself at doors or windows in winter and enjoys stretching out on tiles under the aircon in summer. She has a no fuss personality, who does need a little help with grooming and looks forward to brief brushing each day. She is not a high contact cat and doesn't demand pats or attention - she is just happy spending her days with company. She had never known other pets, but adjusted well to life with another cat and dog in foster care. Both of them show healthy regard for their senior Princess. She's quite routine, and once her favourite spots are established, you will always find her in one of them.. just relaxing and enjoying the simple life. Her exercise consists of strolling royally from one favourite spot to the next. She is probably best suited to a senior home, as she is no longer interested in playing ...
